25X1A

3. Revisions of Agency Regulations now being coordinated include the following changes:

a. Permits the shipment at Government expense of a foreign, personally owned, vehicle when it is to be used for operational purposes in lieu of [redacted]

b. Provides for Deputy Director for Support approval of increases in the $50 per month transportation allowance upon receipt of acceptable justification.

c. Requires annual reporting to Headquarters concerning the total personal and official mileage [redacted]

25X1A

d. Provides that [redacted] mileage between residence and office be charged as personal mileage.

~~SECRET~~

e. Permits an alternate method of reimbursing for use of a [REDACTED] vehicle by providing that the employee will pay all costs of vehicle operation (i. e., gas, oil, lubrication, washing and tire repairs), but will make no claim to the Agency for costs involved in official travel in the vehicle. Conversely, the Agency will not require mileage rate reimbursement for personal use [REDACTED]

25X1A

f. Permits Chiefs of Station to authorize transportation allowances without the necessity for securing Headquarters approval on each case.

25X1A

4. The above changes in Agency Regulations are designed to make transportation allowances more acceptable to employees [REDACTED] Additional measures planned to bring about the desired changes are: 25X1A

a. A request to the Agency's Credit Union for preferential interest rates for automobile loans to employees whose vehicles will be used for official purposes [REDACTED]

b. A dispatch to all Chiefs of Station firmly announcing the Agency's vehicular economy program, and emphasizing Agency intent to get out of [REDACTED] business wherever possible.

25X1A

c. Special attention to Agency vehicle usage and economies by members of the Inspector General's Staff as a part of their regular system of audits and inspections.
